

Tom,

I suppose a seminar like yours has been successful if it inspires godly change in its participants. If this is so, then the seminar was a smashing success from my perspective.

I enjoyed the sessions as well as the opportunity to witness with a group of experienced evangelists down at Mill Avenue. In fact, I believe I am now more excited about sharing my faith than I have been in quite some time.

I have shared my faith more in the past five days than in the prior five months. God bless and keep up the great work.

Beau
