

Tom & Catherine,

I have been wanting to get back into a ministry for some time now and also have had a huge desire to completely change my career to one that is in direct contact with the public and helping them in some way. I have also had a big desire to go back to school and get my masters in Theology or Divinity. In my mind, I want to accomplish one thing at a time, i.e., find a job, get back into shape, go back to school online, get more involved in church, join a ministry, etc. Notice that finding a ministry was listed last. I think god is trying to make necessary changes in me. Thank you for the opportunity that you have given me. I needed what I experienced on Saturday. I have been wanting to do gods work again, but do it better, make new friends, and be around other 'bible believing' people. I would like to grow and stay in touch. In answer to your question, my desire is to come back and maybe bring my almost 9 year old daughter, so, Saturday gave me encouragement and hope. I saw a group of friends together on Saturday encouraging each other. You both are a blessing to everyone.

God bless you,

Linda, T
