

Dear Tom & Catherine,

Tom, you did an awesome job -- your boldness and candor is very refreshing. I have been listening carefully to what I heard in church, Sunday school and small group yesterday to compare it with what you shared with us. It is amazing that no one really talks about sin. Only faith. But, like you said, "Faith in what?". And, what does repentance mean? I don't think the man on the street has a clue. I believe that word needs to be more clearly defined to those we talk to. I am looking forward to going out with you to see the response of people to "The Way of the Master" method. Catherine thank you for your support of Tom and your participation in the class. And, thanks to the others for the testimonies and goodies. In Him, Pat
